

Aldridge Running Club

Code of conduct

1. All members of Aldridge Running Club (“the club”) are to treat other members or guests with respect whilst attending training nights or any events that the club is involved in, organising or participating in.
2. All members of the club are to treat members of any other running club, officials or other members of the public with respect where the club is involved in or participating in any running events.
3. All members of the club are to treat others fairly without discrimination of any kind whilst being engaged in events and training that the club is involved in.
4. All members of the club are to avoid being offensive (via words or behaviour) abusive, insulting, harassing to other members or guests, members of any other running club, officials, or members of the public when attending club training, club organised events or representing the club in any organised event.
5. Members of the club must not bring the club into disrepute.
6. Members must only use the club social media for running related issues and must not post anything which is discriminatory, offensive, abusive, insulting or harassing towards any other members (or the club in general) or which would lead to the club being brought into disrepute.
7. Any member not complying with this code may be dealt with under the club’s disciplinary procedure.
